Topic: Data Extraction & Analysis

As data is one component of an organization's backbone, learn the benefits of using data extraction and analysis to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of audits.

Speakers: Devin Amato, CISA, CIA & Ariana Lewis, MBA – Deloitte & Touche LLP
Devin Amato, CIA, CISA, is a Senior Manager in the Audit & Enterprise Risk Services practice in the Kansas City office specializing in the fields of business process controls risk, information technology risk, and data interrogation. Devin has led various SOX, internal audit, information technology audit, data analysis, and business process reviews for clients in the manufacturing, utilities and energy, and financial services industries. Further, Devin is part of the Mid-America region's Data Quality & Integrity service line leadership. In addition to being an ISACA member, Devin is currently on the IIA's Board of Directors. He received his MBA from the University of Missouri, his Masters in Accounting from UCLA, and bachelor's degrees in Business Administration and Psychology from the University of Kansas.

Ariana Lewis, MBA, is a Manager in the Audit & Enterprise Risk Services practice in the Kansas City office specializing in SAS 70, SOX, and IT and Business Process internal audit engagements. Ariana primarily serves clients in the financial services industry, including one of the nation's largest mortgage providers. Ariana is currently ISACA-KC's Membership Director and a member of the IIA. She received her MBA and BS in Accounting from Rockhurst University.

Registration is available on-line at www.isaca-kc.org. If you prefer to pre-pay for the meeting, please mail your check or money order made payable to ISACA-KC to Greater Kansas City Chapter of ISACA, PO Box 26066, Kansas City, MO 64196. Please note you may pay the day of the meeting and pre-payment is not required.
